Lifeline is a federal government assistance benefit that provides a monthly discount on home or mobile telephone services. Only ONE Lifeline discount is allowed per household. Members of a household are not permitted to receive Lifeline service from multiple companies. Lifeline is a non-transferable benefit. Willfully making false statements to obtain the benefit can result in fines, imprisonment, de-enrollment, and/or being barred from the program. Violation of the one-per-household limitation constitutes a violation of the FCC's rules and will result in de-enrollment and, potentially, prosecution by the U.S. government. Lifeline is a federal government benefit program and only qualified persons may participate.

Your household is everyone who lives together at your physical address as one economic unit (including children and people who are not related to you). The adults you live with are part of your economic unit if they contribute to and share in the income and expenses of the household. An adult is any person 18 years of age or older, or an emancipated minor. Household expenses include food, health care expenses and the cost of renting or paying a mortgage on your place of residence, and utilities. Income includes salary, public assistance benefits, social security payments, pensions, unemployment compensation, veteran's benefits, inheritances, alimony, child support payments, worker's compensation benefits, gifts, and lottery winnings.

Spouses and domestic partners are considered to be part of the same household. Children under the age of 18 living with their parents or guardians are considered to be part of the same household as their parents and guardians. If an adult has no income, or minimal income, and lives with someone who provides financial support to that adult, both people are considered part of the same household.
